

Unit-1

Computer Forensics

2-Marks Questions

1. Define cybercrime. Give one example.
 2. What is digital forensics?
 3. State any two types of cybercrimes.
 4. What is electronic evidence?
 5. Differentiate between hacking and cracking.
-

4-Marks Questions

1. Explain any two types of electronic media used in digital forensics.
 2. Discuss the importance of handling and preserving electronic evidence in investigations.
 3. Describe any two types of cybercrimes and their impact on society.
 4. What is the role of cryptography in cyber security and digital forensics?
 5. Briefly explain credit card and ATM frauds with one real-world example.
-

6-Marks Questions

1. Describe the process of collection, searching, and storage of electronic media during forensic investigation.
2. Discuss in detail the classification of cybercrimes and give examples of each category.
3. What are internet crimes? Explain different types with appropriate examples.
4. Explain the emerging digital crimes in today's digital world. How can law enforcement deal with them?
5. Write a detailed note on digital forensics: its definition, process, tools used, and significance in modern investigations.